All-in-One Publishing!

Would you like to copy and print your discs in one easy step? Then here is your publishing solution! The new TCP-7200™ will work as a standalone device that is ready for any user, or it can be networked to your PC for those who wish to send images via your network! The TCP-7200™ comes as standard equipment with 2 - high speed CD-R writers, a gigantic 220 disc hopper, a large internal hard drive and TrueNet 2™ Networking software for your networking needs.

Professional Duplication!

The industrial design of the TCP-7200™ will give you reliable service without the need for costly repairs. Reliable robotics combined with R-Quest's™ proprietary board technology, your publishing system will produce only the finest quality copies without the need for constant human intervention!

Printing has never been easier! Whether you own a Mac or a PC, the flexibility of the R-Quest™ controller allows you to create your print image using the graphics program of your choice. Want more? R-Quest™ will also supply a copy of our proprietary labeling program to make it even easier! Ultimate convenience!

Easy! Flexible! Reliable! Quality! The TCP-7200™ is the right choice!
